

The Malta Resuscitation Council (MRC)
in collaboration with
The European Resuscitation Council (ERC) is issuing applications for participation in Adult BLS / AED course followed by an Instructor's course

Dates: 9th and 10th February 2006.
Venue: The Institute of Healthcare

Applications are open to doctors and nurses interested in Resuscitation. The formats of these courses include lectures and 'hands-on' skill stations over two full days. The faculty will be made up of local and international instructors and the course director is Dr. Anthony Handley, Chairperson ERC BLS / AED sub-committee.

Applicants for this first course and who complete the Instructor's course will be expected to teach in subsequent courses organised by the MRC.

Applications can be collected from Dr. Mary Rose Cassar, Dr. Anna Spiteri, Mr. Trevor Abela Fiorentino and Mrs. Vicky Bugeja Rausi at the A&E Department of St. Luke's Hospital.

The number of participants on these courses is limited and applications should be submitted before the 31st December 2005.

Main Sponsors for these courses are

The Institute of Healthcare, University of Malta

The Department of Health
